

Dhillon Gets GOP Leaders' Endorsements

By a Staff Reporter

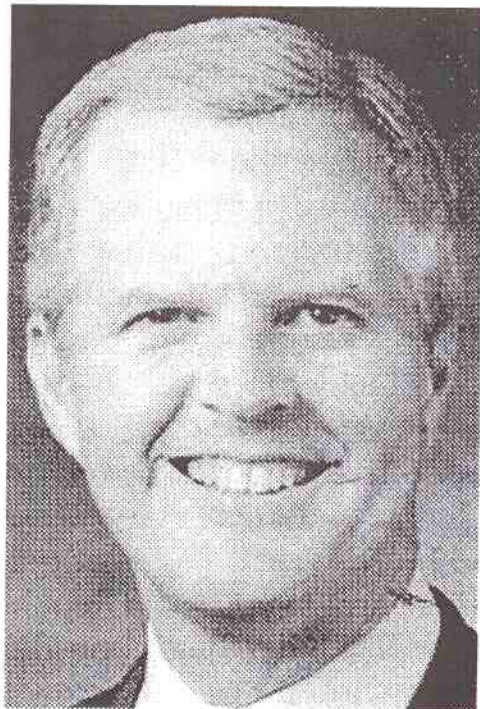

Former GOP U.S. Congressman Tom Campbell and California Assembly member Guy Houston, R-Livermore, Calif., have endorsed Republican Harmeet K. Dhillon's campaign for state Assembly in District 13 in San Francisco.

Campbell, who said he has launched an exploratory committee for a possible gubernatorial bid, served most recently as dean of the Haas School of Business at U.C. Berkeley and is currently a partner at an international law firm.

A former state finance director, Campbell cited Dhillon's fiscal responsibility in his endorsement.

Houston and Dhillon were recently presented awards at the Fremont Sikh Temple's International Turban Day celebrations.

Dhillon was also recently endorsed by former San Francisco Police Chief Tony Ribera.

Former U.S. Congressman Tom Campbell has endorsed Harmeet Dhillon for the California state Assembly.

"I am very proud to have the support of local law enforcement, Bay Area elected officials such as Guy Houston and national leaders of Tom Campbell's stature," Dhillon said in a statement.
