KRON4, Channel 4's Bay Area news station, on the eve of the election conducted a poll on the local Congressional and State Senate and Assembly races, which, at the time of this release, showed Republican Harmeet K. Dhillon narrowly trailing her opponent Democrat Tom Ammiano, 45% to 51%, in a district where less than 10% of registered voters are Republican. KRON4's poll is the first serious poll taken tracking the Assembly race in the 13th District, and the Dhillon '08 campaign believes it is providing an accurate preview for the results of tomorrow's election.

Harmeet K. Dhillon is a candidate for the California State Assembly, District 13, which includes the eastern half of San Francisco.

Dhillon has been endorsed by the San Francisco Building Owners and Management Association, California Women's Leadership Association PAC, Citizens for a Better San Francisco, Small Property Owners of San Francisco, San Francisco Coalition for Responsible Growth, former Police Chief Tony Ribera, California Insurance Commissioner Steve Poizner, former California Treasurer Matt Fong, Meg Whitman, former CEO of eBay, and numerous other elected officials, law enforcement and community leaders.
